

Skaggs Classic Raises Money for Cardiac/Pulmonary Rehabilitation Scholarships

In partnership with the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the Skaggs Foundation held its annual Skaggs Classic Party and Charity Auction sponsored by Beaver Creek Elk & Cattle Ranch and Lakes Region Imaging on Saturday, June 13.

The 2009 Skaggs Classic presented by CenturyTel was held on Monday, June 15 at The Payne Stewart Golf Club. Forty-four teams participated in morning and afternoon rounds under extremely warm conditions to help raise money for current patients undergoing rehabilitation for cardiac and pulmonary procedures recently performed at Skaggs Regional Medical Center.

The results for this year's event are as follows:

Morning Round – A Flight 1st Place – Kehe Foods; 2nd Place Fairways AFAR; B Flight – 1st Place – The Russell / Pocius Team; 2nd Place – CenturyTel; C Flight – 1st Place – White River Electric ; 2nd Place – Signs Now Branson.

Afternoon Round – A Flight – 1st Place - Federal Protection; 2nd Place – Silver Dollar City; B Flight – 1st Place – Label Solutions; 2nd Place – G.L. Moore Tire; C Flight – 1st Place – Hiland Dairy Foods; 2nd Place – White River Electric.

Rodney Arnold, Executive Vice President for Skaggs Foundation, stated, “This year’s event was a great success, and we’ve raised approximately $30,000 for our patients currently undergoing rehabilitation. While we realize that these are tough financial times for our sponsors, we’re grateful that so many stepped forward to help some people that are going through even more difficult times on a daily and personal level.”
